NEW LISTINGS

This new listing from Fran Katzen of Douglas Elliman is perched high atop 880 Fifth Avenue offering unobstructed views of Central Park and beyond. This four-bedroom, 4-bath, 3,000 s/f home has two entry foyers and the living room offers commanding views through oversized windows. The kitchen has white marble stone countertops and stainless steel appliances with custom white cabinetry that flanks two sides of the kitchen's preparation area. There is a maids room and split bedroom layout. The landmark building, converted in 1948, offers white glove services, including manned elevators, a garage, service staff, a gym, two storage areas and 24/7 security. Katzen has listed the home at $9.495 million.
